URGENT: GLOBAL ADVISORY;
TRAVEL INSURANCE MAY BE VOID

Please be advised that the Government of Canada has now issued an Official Global Advisory advising Canadians to “avoid non-essential travel outside of Canada until further notice.”

Your insurance company may now treat this as equivalent to a Level 3 Travel advisory where all non-essential travel should be avoided. Therefore, your travel insurance coverage (emergency medical coverage and trip cancellation insurance) may be void after today, March 13th, 2020 if you decide to travel outside of the country. Because of this, we strongly advise against all travel until further notice.

For employees who are currently outside of the country, coverage may be in place as long as they comply with the advisory and try to return home as soon as possible.
